

MORNING APPEAL.

Sunday..... March 18, 1888.

THE LOCOMOTIVE BROTHERHOOD.

There is every prospect that the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers will win the fight with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy R. R.

The Brotherhood is composed of men who rank as skilled laborers, and are persons of intelligence and standing. They are not composed of the riff-raff of Socialist mobs and liquor swilling communists, who are continually striking because they are too lazy to work. One feels assured that the Engineers have not gone out on a strike without grave grievance and also not without due deliberations and a careful discussion of the character of their wrongs.

These men work for a wealthy corporation and they are ground down to a scale of wages not sufficient to enable them to support their families decently and educate their children properly.

They are skilled American workmen and the propose to have decent American wages.

The sympathy of the country is with them in their struggle for the comforts of life, for fair wages and a chance to bring up their families on an American basis.

The corporation with which they are struggling is amply able to pay good wages and still pile up millions of profit every year.

The Brotherhood all over the United States have fallen in line to fight C. B. & Q. men and they will without a doubt win in the end.

A FOOLISH CLAIM.

The manner in which the Democratic press is holding a jubilee over the carrying of Sacramento by the Democrats shows how hard up they are for political straws.

The result in Sacramento, which is a Republican stronghold, is not a test of Republican or Democratic strength.

A gang of rascals who are in politics for revenue salary, obtained control of the Republican primaries by means of open and shameless ballot-stuffing. The ticket nominated by this crowd was so rotten that several hundred leading Republicans met and held an indignation meeting. At this meeting they adopted resolutions to support the Democratic ticket, which was composed of good business men, and unobjectionable.

This beat the ballot-stuffers' ticket, and the result has caused a general pounding of hewgags all over the Coast by Democratic journals.

The Sacramento election simply shows that the Republicans there will not support tickets incubated in fraud. If the Bourbon journals can show us a single case where Democrats ever repudiated a ticket because it was backed by ballot-stuffers we will retract everything we have ever said about the Democratic party.

Dakota Editor's Complaint.

"We greatly dislike to find fault with any of the customs of our beautiful little city," says a Dakota editor, "but we must nevertheless insist that people keep their swine out from under the office of this paper. While engaged at our desk writing our leader on 'The Stability of Our Territorial Institutions,' for our paper this week, one of Senator McBride's razor backed hogs humped up its spine and began scratching its back on the beams under the floor, jarring the whole building and making it necessary for us to stop our work on the editorial, crawl under our office, and walk the critter along the side with a column rule. This interrupted our train of thought, and the editorial is not what we could wish."

What May Happen.

A great European war, by compelling rich Americans to keep away from the Rhine and the great Bohemian watering-places and compelling them to spend their money on our rivers, coasts and mountains, may make the Summer seasons of 1888 memorable in the minds of watering-place hotel-keepers.
